Is One Result Of Washington Conference Action

(Reuter's Service)

London, April 10.—It is reported that the floatation is impending at Amsterdam of a Chinese loan to the value, approximately, of £1,500,000 worth of 8 percent Chinese Exchequer Bonds of 1,000 guilders each, which will be offered at 96. The issue will have a lien upon the Lung-Tsing-U-Hai Railway. Redemption at par will be made by five annual drawings, beginning in 1926.

Participation in the new issue will be invited in London, but the Daily News City editor does not think that there will be much response in view of the doubtful position regarding the other 8 percent Chinese Government issues.

The Times, meantime, calls attention to the high credit enjoyed by Chinese Government loans secured by the Maritime Customs, evidence of which was given by the recent substantial participation of these issues in the general improvement of the investment markets. Notwithstanding frequent despatches from China giving very discouraging accounts of the condition of her national finances, The Times holds that this news and the default of certain unsecured loans is largely offset by the attitude of the Washington Conference towards China.

It points out that while the proposals which are now afoot to raise the Customs duties beyond an effective 5 percent are largely inspired by a desire to improve the home Government's position, they also serve further to enhance the security of existing loans.

Famous Annapolis Class Of '81 To Meet In Tokio Reunion

(China Press Service)

Washington, Apr. 11.—Plans are being completed for the next reunion of the famous naval Academy class of 1881 which is to be held in Tokio, Japan, in May Included in the class graduates are Secretary Weeks, Rear Admiral Henry B. Wilson, superintendent of the Naval Academy; Maj. Gen. George Barnett, former commandant of the Marine Corps; Brig. Gen. Henry C. Haines, of the Marine Corps; Senator O. E. Weller, of Maryland; and Admiral Uria, of the Japanese Navy. Admiral Uria attended the reunion in Washington last summer and then invited the classmen to meet in Tokio this year.

A special invitation to attend the reunion was extended to Secretary Denby on the ground that having married the sister of a member he is a "brother-in-law member of the class." The American members will make the trip to Japan on the naval transport Henderson, sailing from San Francisco, and stops will be made at Hawaii, the Philippines and China enroute.

Wants Foreigners To Pay Big C.E.R. Debt

(Chung Mei Service)

Peking, April 7.—Some $23,510,000 for the transportation of troops and for army supplies are owed the Chinese Eastern Railway and the Government is requested to so inform the foreign legations here that these debts may be paid up to relieve the financial stringency of the railway administrations, according to a telegram received from Dr. C. C. Wang, Director-General.

Dr. Wang proposes that as the railway needs money, a note should be addressed to the foreign legations concerned asking them to pay the huge debt owed the railway. In connection with bandit suppression and the C. E. R. zone, Dr. Wang has consulted General Hsu Lan-chow, who is commander-in-chief of the Bandit Suppression Force of the Three Eastern Provinces. It was resolved that one brigade of infantry and one battalion of cavalry be stationed along the railway as a guard against marauding bandits.

CHOW, ACCEPTED BY WU, OPPOSED BY OWN CLIQUE

President Hsu Optimistic Over Future Of New Cabinet

(Dah Tong News Agency)

Peking, April 11.—Acting Premier Chow Tse-chi returned to Peking yesterday in response to the request of President Hsu Shih-chang. His own clique, the Chiaotung faction, however, opposes his assumption of office. Liang Shih-yi will not cancel his leave of absence nor offer to relinquish the premiership.

The President is optimistic because Wu Pei-fu has not only agreed to accept Chow as Liang's successor, but also has consented to allow the issuance of the $96,000,000 Salt Surplus Loan proposed by Minister of Finance Chang Hu. Wu did this, it is understood, in order to show that he was not opposed to the loan itself, but that he objected to its being issued by the Liang Cabinet.

Reports are current that a large loan was secured by Chow during his stay in the United States in connection with the Washington Conference. As soon as he assumes office, the agreement with American financial authorities will be signed, it is declared. The terms of the new agreement were disclosed, it is said, to Liang Shih-yi when Chow was in Tientsin.

The status of Chow will be similar to that of W. W. Yen. He is Minister of Education, acting concurrently as Acting Premier, just as Yen was Minister of Foreign Affairs acting concurrently as Acting Premier. It is not the intention of the President to relieve Liang from office if the latter chooses to prolong his absence.

Charge Japanese With Sale Of Arms To Chinese Here

Charges of selling smuggled revolvers to Chinese will be brought in the Japanese Consular Court against four Japanese quartermasters of the steamer Mitor Maru, who were taken into custody Monday. One of the men was found to be in possession of a Mauser pistol and 48 rounds of ammunition and, according to the police, admitted having sold three weapons to a Chinese. The ship on which the four were employed is lying at Wayside wharf.

All Preparations For Fine Welcome Are Ready

THOUSANDS WAIT

Trip To Tokio To Be Made By Special Train

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, April 11.—Reuter's Special Correspondent with the Prince of Wales wirelesses from the Renown:

The ships are making a fine passage at a steady nineteen knots. All on board are well. A north-easterly wind blew on Sunday and there was a heavy sea, followed by dull clouds. Passing the French cruiser Montcalm, salutes were exchanged between her and Renown, Durban and the Japanese escort.

Tokio, April 11.—Preparations have been completed for the reception of the Prince of Wales tomorrow. All are anxiously watching the weather which this morning was dull and heavy. Only bright skies are required to perfect the magnificence of the naval, ariel and civic welcome awaiting the Prince.

H. M. S. Renown and Durban with the Japanese escort are expected to make port at eight o'clock in the morning, the Renown mooring at Number 10 Buoy 30 minutes later. The first welcome will be extended by six ships of the First Squadron under Admiral Tochinai, which will fire the salute of 21 guns as the Renown approaches her moorings. The aerial salutes will be made by four formations of 18 aircraft, flown by Japanese naval pilots and members of the British Aviation Mission, after which an exhibition of aerial maneuvers will be given in honor of the Royal visitor.

As soon as the Renown anchors, Prince Higashi-Fushimi and the members of the Reception Committee, Sir Charles Eliot and members of the Embassy staff, the Governor of Kanagawa, the Mayor of Yokohama and others will proceed on board to take part in the formal welcome.

His Royal Highness will leave the Renown at half-past nine for the Pier, where there will be assembled several thousand persons representing Japanese officials, prominent personages, the Consular Corps, British and British-Indian residents and ex-service men and other foreign residents.

After landing and inspecting the naval and military guards of honor, the Prince will be formally welcomed by the Governor, the Mayor, Consul-General Holmes, Mr. L. Pollard, the Chairman of the British Association, and Mr. Marzza, representing the British Indians.

The two latter will read addresses and bouquets will be offered by Misses Holmes and Inouye, the daughters of the British Consul-General and the Governor, respectively.

Afterwards His Royal Highness will leave for Tokio by train.

$3,280,000 Seized By Wu Pei-fu From Peking-Hankow Line

The sum of $3,280,000 belonging to the Peking-Hankow Railway has been seized by Wu Pei-fu for military expenses since late last year, it is reported. The Ministry of Communications has addressed an ultimatum to Wu, forbiding him to convert any more funds for his own use as from April 1.

Open Meeting Today Of Tariff Board Postponed

On account of the non-arrival of some of the Japanese delegates, the first business meeting of the Tariff Revision Commission, scheduled to take place at the Chinese Chamber of Commerce today, has been postponed. The Japanese are expected to arrive tomorrow, in which case, the meeting will be held at the Chamber at 2.30 o'clock on Thursday.

British Women Launch New Political Movement

BRITISH women will "seek their own" in politics. A movement to organise a political party composed exclusively of women today is in full swing in England. The leaders, it is declared, are hopeful of gaining an influential place in the government and as there are 2,000,000 more women than men in Great Britain they ought to succeed. Besides the Viscountess Rhondda, who has just been granted a seat in the House of Lords, there are other Peeresses who are entitled to seats with the Peers of the Realm. Seven of these are shown in the accompanying group. They may not, of course, take the seats to which they are entitled without an invitation from the House of Lords.

STUDENT ANTIS INVADE CENTRAL CHINA, REPORT

Alarming Stories Reach Hankow From Yangtsze Points

(China Press Service)

Hankow, April 8.—Anti-Christian propaganda is making its debut in Central China, and alarming reports of anti-Christian as well as anti-foreign-mission agitations are coming in from Nanchang, Changsha and Wuchang. The Hankow Consular body has taken it up with the Governors.

An urgent telegram was received yesterday at Hankow from a foreign missionary of Nanchang stating that anti-Christian agitators, at the instigation of agents from Shanghai, are forming themselves into Anti-Christian Federation for the purpose of effectively bolstering up their cause, and incendiary literatures disparaging American mission interests have been spread broadcast among Chinese papers at Nanchang.

Urgent telegrams have been sent to Tuchun Chen Kwang-yuan of Nanchang by consular authorities of Hankow urging him to take immediate measures to nip the movement in the bud and avoid the possible violence that may happen to foreign missionaries and interests.

The movement at Changsha is also rapidly gaining ground, and an American lecturer from New York who recently went there for a lecture campaign was compelled by such circumstances to cancel his speaking engagements. Meetings are held among the student agitators, and there is much apprehension of the movement assuming more aggressive development.

There is no less apprehension in Wuchang, where the Government Teachers College students evidently have taken the leadership in stirring up anti-Christian feeling among government school students. The Governors of Wuchang have been addressed by the consuls of Hankow through the Commissioner of Foreign Affairs, and both governors are requested to provide adequate protection to foreign missionary interests and native Christians should actual outrages break out in Wuchang.

LONDON FAILURE

(Reuter's Service)

British Court Overrules Petition Of Judah Ezra For Discharge As Bankrupt

Question Of Whether Transactions Constituted Gambling Raised At Hearing At Which Application Is Opposed

Application that was made yesterday by Judah Isaac Ezra, recently adjudged bankrupt, for discharge, which was opposed by the Official Receiver and by creditors, was refused by Judge Peter Grain in the British Supreme Court.

The application was presented by Mr. H. Reader Harris, counsel for Mr. Ezra under Section 26 of the Bankruptcy Act.

Mr. Reader Harris said that Mr. Ezra was adjudicated bankrupt on April 1, 1921. His state of affairs then disclosed a large liability, amounting to Tls. 3,506,475, and assets estimated at Tls. 1,607.91, leaving a deficiency of Tls. 3,504,867.52.

The report of the official receiver had been put in, and the official receiver opposed the application for the bankrupt's discharge. The official receiver reported that the proofs of debt which he had admitted to date amounted to Tls. 707,690.02 together with an unascertainable amount due for interest. Two creditors shown in the statement of affairs as being entitled to approximately Tls. 694.328.43 had not yet proved.

The official receiver had rejected proofs amounting to approximately Tls. 2,103,631 as being contrary to the provisions of the Gaming Acts and such rejection had not been appealed against. All the assets, which amount to Tls. 2,012.95, had been realised. The most that would be available for distribution in dividends would be $1,374.08, whereas the liabilities admitted by the bankrupt, in his statement of affairs amount to $1,402,018.45, which meant that no greater dividend than .0009 cents per dollar, being the equivalent of considerably less than one farthing in the pound sterling, could be paid in dividends.

OBJECTIONS LISTED

The grounds on which the Official Receiver, Mr. A. L. Dickson, opposed the discharge were:

(1) The bankrupt's assets were not of value equal to ten shillings in the pound on account of his unsecured liabilities.

(2) He omitted to keep books of account to disclose his financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy.

(3) Contracted a debt provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting it reasonable expectation of being able to pay it.

(4) Bankruptcy brought about by rash and hazardous speculations and by gambling.

(5) No employment obtained since the date of the receiver's order.

The report added: "I am of opinion that he has made no attempt to do so but is living on his brothers and sisters. I am informed and verily believe that the bankrupt is living in an extravagant manner and has been seen continually driving about in motor cars and at various places of amusement."

(6) Borrowed shortly after his adjudication in May, 1921, Tls. 1,500 and $500 for speculation, informing the lender that he was an undischarged bankrupt and that he expected to make 30 to 40 percent in two months on the amount borrowed, which he promised to repay within that time. Under pressure from the lender he repaid the amount borrowed with interest by a cheque drawn by one Haimovitch.

HITS AT CREDITORS

Mr. Harris said he did not dispute certain of these allegations. He admitted that the assets in the hands of the receiver would not permit a distribution of ten shillings to the pound. His Lordship would either have to admit the application or refuse to give the bankrupt the discharge.

If the application was to be rejected he thought that the suspension should not be for more than two years. There were cases in England, he said where the suspension of a discharge was for five years, but in the present case the bankrupt had done nothing dishonest. He had come up for his discharge after a year, and the application is opposed on the ground that the assets do not come up to a farthing in a pound. He quite agreed that the bankrupt had been guilty of speculating. It was proved that he had gone into horse racing and had made bets on the race course and lost money. Looking at the circumstances his Lordship would admit that there was no fraud intended or perpetrated. The creditors numbered six or seven.

The creditors had assisted the bankrupt in his gambling transactions, the attorney said.

The Judge: Your point is that the creditors had participated with him in his speculation.

Mr. Harris said that the people who were let in were people who

TRAFFIC LANES TO BE MARKED OFF IN PACIFIC

Admiral Chandler Signs Order For Navy Department

(China Press Service)

Washington, April 10.—"Cortez standing on his peak in Darien never anticipated this," said Rear Admiral L. H. Chandler head of the Navy's department of hydrography, as he signed the order to double the trade routes in the North Pacific today. "Poor Cortez looked over an ocean he called Pacific because no keel ploughed its waters. Now we have so many we must separate the East and West bound ships."

Such is the plan of the hydrographers who are routing the northern Pacific into two general zones, both following great circles but diverging somewhat from the start so that navigators who follow the new routes need fear only rear end collisions in case they overtake some of the slower Japanese boats. Head on encounters no longer are to be feared.

Which zone will have the longer great circle, has not been announced, but it has been the subject of some conjecture whether it were better to make the route from Japan to the United States shorter than the vice-versa one. The wits of the Navy department have taken their fill of the topic whether in these times of high taxes it were not better to make it easier to get to Japan where the waters of Nunibiki falls, well tempered with genuine Scotch whiskey made in Japan, may draw a kindly veil over the remembrance of income tax collected not wisely but too well.

The other school, called the "Homeward Bounds," hold out for the quicker route being given to the incoming vessel bearing the returning tourist and the big silk shipments that " cost much interest every day they are afloat." To these objectors, the Outward Bounds reply, "Go on, you never wore silk socks in your life."

Shantung Guards Take Up New Posts

(China Press Service)

Tsinanfu, April 11.—Police to the number of 220 arrived from Peking today and were distributed along the line of the Shantung Railway between Tsinan and Changtien. One Japanese military officer accompanied the special train.

It is announced that the Japanese soldiers who have been withdrawn will leave for home within a few days.

LLOYD GEORGE HALTS CLASH AT THE GENOA CONFERENCE

Russians And French Get Into Verbal Tilt

CANNES, CAUSE

British Premier Acted Just In Time, Say Observers

(Reuter's Service)

Genoa, April 11.—The first sitting of the Conference yesterday marked an encounter between M. Barthou and M. Chicherin. After Dr. Wirth had declared that Germany was prepared to collaborate, M. Chicherin declared that Russia would accept the Cannes resolutions and asserted that the Russians wished to negotiate on a basis of riciprocity and equality. They favored disarmament but demanded guarantees against external attacks.

M. Barthou, who had previously spoken, protested that M. Chicherin referred to questions which Cannes had side-tracked. He took exception also to M. Chicherin's references to disarmament as irrelevant.

M. Chicherin replied that M. Briand at Washington had said that France was unable to disarm on account of Russia. They were now offering to remove that objection.

Mr. Lloyd George poured oil on the troubled waters and appealed to M. Chicherin not to wreck the Conference.

The incident was closed by the adjournment of the sitting amid some excitement.

Genoa, April 11.—Reuter's representative is informed that the British Delegation is very pleased with the progress hitherto achieved, especially in view of the general acceptance of the principle of the Cannes resolutions. Successful results from the Conference are anticipated.

"JUST IN TIME"

Allied diplomats admit that Mr. Lloyd George rose not a moment too soon to dissipate the menace resulting from the French protest of M. Chicherin's excursion outside the Cannes agenda. His appeals were more effective in that he refused to take M. Chicherin and a deadlock too seriously and his remarks restored good humor.

Genoa, April 10.—Mr. Lloyd George, in the course of his opening speech at the Economic Conference, laid stress on the fact that all the nations were meeting on equal terms providing that they accepted equal conditions.

He proceeded to summarise the Cannes resolutions.

Firstly, that the nations agree not to repudiate their debts, notwithstanding any change in Government;

Secondly, that no country would wage war on another's institutions;

Thirdly, that no nation would engage in aggressive operations against another's territory;

Fourthly, equal justice to foreigners in courts of law.

He said that the time of actual fighting had ceased but the snarling continued, which was undignified and distracting.

Mr. Lloyd George went on to say that the Conference would make a real contribution to the restoration of Europe if it could stop that snarling and, he enjoined the nations not to roll boulders in front of the plough, as a sense of despair would sweep all over the world if the Conference failed.

(Reuter's Service)

Genoa, April 10.—Signor Facta, the Italian Premier, formally opened the International Economic Conference at the Palazzo Georgio today.

The delegates of the five convening Powers sat side by side at the principal cross table, the Italians being in the center, the British Empire delegates on the left and the French on the right.

The Belgians and the Japanese sat at the ends. The members of the other states were placed at four tables at right angles to the principal table. The Russians sat between the Serbians and Roumanians, with the Finns in front and the Swedes and Spaniards behind.

All approaches to the Palazzo Georgio were densely crowded for hours before the opening of the conference. There was an imposing military display everywhere, including cavalry with drawn swords. The strictest precautions

Long Service Medals Awarded To Veterans Of The Volunteer Corps

Mr. A. Brooke Smith, Civil Commandant, Inspects Units And Reviews Impressive March Past In Decoration Ceremonial At The Race Course

In the presence of many spectators and following a highly creditable parade of the whole corps, the veterans of the S.V.C. yesterday afternoon received from the hands of the Civil Commandant, Mr. A. Brooke Smith, Chairman of the Municipal Council, the Municipality's badge of honor—the Long Service Medal.

The ceremonial parade was held on the Polo field at the Race Course and the various units, foot, horse and motor, when drawn up for parade extended the entire length of the long field and lapped over into adjoining territory. Some 750 men were in line when Mr. Brooke Smith arrived, promptly at 5:45 to inspect the corps—probably his last inspection as Civil Commandant in view of his approaching retirement. Colonel R. Marr Johnson, Commandant, directed the parade.

The march past, reflected credit on each of the various "outfits," from the Light Horse, who led off, to the staunch handful of pioneers—the Reserve of Officers—who brought up the rear of the column. Deserving special mention perhaps were the Light Horse, the Field Artillery, Captain Grayrigge's Chinese Company and the Scottish.

Following the march past the active and retired men upon whom the Council has conferred the service honors paraded in line before the reviewing post and Mr. Brooke Smith pinned upon the lapel of each the handsome silver token, blazoned with the Municipal coat of arms and ribboned with red, white and blue.

OLD TIMERS GREETED

Applause from the long gallery greeted each award, but the greeting vociferous and spontaneous was reserved for the civilian clad contingent made up of the real "old timers."

Mr. Brodie A. Clarke, one of Shanghai's oldest and most prominent citizens, was the first of the retired veterans to step forward and receive the decoration. His period of service with the corps began in 1866 and did not terminate until 1913. The next oldest member in point of service was Mr. A. B. Trodd, who joined in 1879 and retired in 1905. Major T. E. Trueman, former Commandant, Mr. T. M. Wilson, Mr. J. W. H. John, Mr. A. E. Roggers, Mr. J. Bourke were others whose enlistment dates back to the eighties and there followed them nearly a score of retired volunteers of long service who enrolled with the Corps in the nineties and at the beginning of the new century.

CIVIL CHIEFTAIN SPEAKS

Following the presentations Mr. Brooke Smith addressed the Corps briefly, as follows:

"As Chairman of the Municipal Council it has been my privilege to distribute the Long Service Medals awarded to present and past members of the Corps in recognition of the arduous services they have rendered the community. I feel sure that these tokens will carry with them recollections of many happy days and the Council cherishes the hope that the majority of the members of the Volunteer Corps may acquire these mementoes of work done in a good cause. It is hoped that it may be a means of attracting recruits to the Corps.

"I feel that you have done me a great honor in permitting me to inspect the Corps on the eve of my retirement from the Council. My connection with the Corps has been a particularly pleasant one and in my retirement from active service in behalf of the community I shall look back to many happy days spent as your civil commandant."

Following is the list of Corps members, active and retired, who were awarded the Long Service Medal by the Council, the majority of whom received the medal at the Race Course yesterday:

Wu Seizes German Ships At Hankow

(China Press Correspondence)

Hankow, April 4.—The Ex-German and Austrian shipping properties at Hankow, that have been managed by the Chinese River Steamship Administration, an organisation appointed by the Ministry of Communications to take charge of these properties during the war, are now the bone of contention between General Wu Pei-fu, who lords it in this center and the Yangtse and Kinhan railway region, and the Communication Ministry at Peking.

Mr. Wang Chun-hsin, secretary of the shipping administration, as a result of his peremptory refusal to hand over these German properties under Chinese custody to General Wu Pei-fu, on the ground that he is under direct control from the Ministry of Commications, was thrown into a military prison in the Hankow headquarters of General Wu, being arrested by General Wu's men from his residence in the French Concession. Urgent telegrams were sent to Peking by Wang informing the Ministry of the high-handedness of General Wu Pei-fu in matters strictly under the authority of the Ministry.

Japan Agrees To Defer Some Issues

(Eastern News Agency)

Dairen, April 10.—The Dairen conference is holding daily sittings at which items of a commercial agreement to be arrived at between Japan and the Far Eastern Republic are now being deliberated upon. It is expected that those items concerning (1) the Nikolaievsk incident and (2) the right of navigation on the Heilungkiang will be deferred to other negotiations to be held some time in future, and that a fundamental agreement on the basis of the items hitherto discussed in connection with commerce between the two April 11 at the latest.

Wedding

CUBBON-MARTIN

Peking, April 7.—The Church of St. Michel, Legation Quarter, was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon when Mr. John Herbert Cubbon, of the Chinese Maritime Customs Service, third son of the late Mr. John Cubbon, Douglas, Isle of Man, and Mrs. Cubbon, New Orleans, was married to Miss Frances Martin, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Martin, Los Angeles.

The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. L. B. Martin, looked charming in a very pretty dress of nigger-brown velvet with sleeves slashed with flowered ninon and floating panels caught at the waist with an ivory girdle; she wore a feathertoque of rust-brown and carried a beautiful shower bouquet of roses. Mrs. L. B. Martin acted for the bride's mother and looked exceedingly well in a handsome black gown of charmeuse covered with black lace. The bridegroom was supported by Mr. P. N. Shone, a colleague on the Inspectorate Staff of the Chinese Maritime Customs Service.

The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Father Feeley, who was assisted by the Rev. Father Clement. After the marriage ceremony a reception was held by Sir Francis and Lady Aglen at their residence, where Sir Francis Aglen proposed the health of the bride and the happy couple received the hearty congratulations of their colleagues on the Inspectorate Staff and a number of other friends. They then left to spend a short honeymoon at Peitaiho prior to proceeding to Europe on long leave.

GERMANY FEARS FAMINE IF NEW TAX IS IMPOSED

No Money To Buy Seed Grain, Says Reply To Allies

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, April 10.—The German reply to the Reparations Commission Note demanding the allied control of Germany and the levy of 60,000,000,000 marks new taxation, points out that since last December the purchasing power of the mark has decreased, and the cost of living steadily risen.

The greatest anxiety is contemplated for the coming Summer in as much as Germany will be faced with famine, if she is unable to obtain the necessary foreign currencies for the payment of imported grain, and the mark will soon cease to have any value abroad if the depreciation of the German currency continues.

The reply declares that it is in the interests of the entire world to prevent Germany's collapse, and reiterates that it is the German Government's conviction that an external loan is the only means for covering its reparation obligations and of stabilising exchanges.

It considers that Germany's present taxation is the heaviest that can be borne, and that the German people could not agree to any control incompatible with Germany's financial sovereignty.

Ll. George Halts Clash At Genoa

were taken at the entrance to the palace, all tickets being closely scrutinised. The visitors staircase was draped in crimson and decorated with camelias and was lined with troops.

The ancient hall was crowded two hours before the opening of the conference, but the seating was inadequate. Journalists packed the gallery at the back of the hall. Mrs. Lloyd George and her dughter sat in the front row of the seats reserved for visitors.

The British delegation was the first to arrive and the Russian delegation was among the last. The Soviet representatives looked nervous.

BARTHOU'S VIEWS

In opening the conference, Signor Facta emphasised that they must work for peace in Europe in the sincere spirit that inspired the Washington Conference. The discussion should be dominated by the principle that the salvation of the community of nations could only be attained by establishing a just accord between the independence, autonomy and sovereignty of individual states. He said that Italy was ready to remove all prohibitive protectionist obstacles to the development of commerce.

After the presidential address Signor Facta affirmed that the conference would be based wholly on the Cannes resolutions.

Mr. Lloyd George pointed out that Europe needed a common effort to restore commerce and industry which had everywhere been disorganised and depressed. The first need was for real peace. The discussion of currency, exchanges, transport and credit would be of no avail unless goodwill among the nations were established and the world became one economic unit.

He regretted therefore the absence of America, but he believed that with the success of the conference America would gladly come in.

An agreement as to the equality of all Powers was reached at a preliminary meeting of the Allied representatives at which France objected to treating Russia and Germany on the same basis as the other nations.

Mr. Lloyd George replied that the conference was not being held for the purpose of issuing ultimatums and added that if Russia and Germany accepted the Cannes resolutions. "We must get to work or otherwise the conference will be useless." The Japanese and Italian delegates concurred and France, after discussion accepted this point of view.

LACK OF SECURITY

M. Barthou, of the French Delegation, declared that the world was suffering from a lack of security and stability and that active faith alone could save the world. He said that France did not pretend to exercise hegemony and that she was wholly peaceloving and would not have the criminal aberration to disturb the peace of the world.

He went on to say that the complexity of the questions before the Conference precluded simplicity of formulae and that it behoved each nation to aid in reconstruction for the success of all.

(Rosta News Agency)

Moscow, April 1.—The Eleventh All-Russian Congress of the Communist Party opened here on March 27. Among those on the presiding committee are Messrs. Lenin, Trotsky, Zinoviev and Stalin. Lenin in a lengthy speech on the Genoa conference said:

"We are going to Genoa with a practical aim, that of broadening our trade and of creating favorable conditions for its development, but in no way do we take upon ourselves the responsibility for the success of the conference. Estimating in a most cautious and sober way all the perspectives offered by the conference, we are however in a position to say that we will attain this aim of ours through Genoa and even without Genoa.

"The renewal of trade is urged by the most immediate and pressing practical interests of the Powers. I cannot guarantee or fix a date when this will be brought about, but I am sure that normal trade relations between Soviet Russia and the world are unavoidably bound to develop. The European press is purposely exaggerating the meaning of the conference. To us, communists who have lived through many hardships since 1917, Genoa offers no difficulties."

(Chung Mei Service)

New York, March 11.—The unfavorable attitude of organised labor in the United States, as represented by the American Federation of Labor, toward the question of American participation in the Genoa conference has been determined, as might have been foreseen, by the expected presence there of representatives of the Soviet Government. In this the federation continues an attitude to which it has given unbounded expression on other occasions.

Mr. Gompers, veteran president of the federation, lost no time in making a statement in which he pointed out that he was among those who first privately and publicly urged the need for an international economic conference, but that his conviction is that such a conference should be summoned by the United States; that the United States should make the agenda, and that there is no place in such a conference for Trotsky and Lenin.

This statement he has now supplemented by a leading editorial in the current Federationist, the official organ of the federation, in which he says:

"To accept the invitation and go to Genoa would be a pronouncement that would go out throughout the world that Lenin and Trotsky are to be recognised and any statement, whether emphatic or moderate, made to dissent from or to repudiate Sovietism at Genoa would receive but little attention from the great masses of the world.

"At this time the Russian people have stopped groping and are now intelligently manifesting their dissent and opposition to the unwarranted dictatorship and cruelty of the Lenin and Trosky regime. The Bolsheviki regime in Russia is disintegrating faster than is generally known. Its life can be prolonged only by the political, economic and moral support of the United States of America.

"Furthermore, to recognise the Lenin despotism at this time, either as de facto or de jure, would be to confound the situation and still further postpone the time when recognition of a real government based on a free expression of the people may be established and recognised. Recognition now would give temporarily an added strength to a regime that must fail before there can be a final solution of Russia's domestic difficulties and her foreign relations, without contributing anything material to immediate relief of her people.

"Moreover, it would be deliberately going into an impasse. The Bolshevist dictatorship will pass, whereupon those who now seek to save it in defiance of all principles of democracy, right and justice, will have to admit their error and retrace their steps in order to establish relations with the democracy that is certain to come and which the present policy of the United States so evidently foresees.

"The Bolshevists themselves admit that the most effective help the Russian people are getting today is through the great work of the American Relief Association, which continues and will continue regardless of the regime that may be enthroned in Moscow.

"The Genoa Conference openly combines the ideas of Lloyd George, Stinnes and Lenin. It prepares the way for a new triple alliance of unrepentant Germany, Sovietised Russia, and certain British politicians. In England we find three pro-Soviet groups: (1) The Communists, the Socialists and a part of the Labor Party; (2) Lord Beaverbrook and other capitalistic newspaper owners and concession-hunters, and (3) the Manchester Guardian, textile and other interests willing to advance Bolshevism so long as it might set some of their mills at work."

You'll Find Them Most Comfortable
That is one of the five reasons why
PARIS GARTERS
are generally preferred by discriminating men everywhere. They are tailored to fit the leg and are made with due regard to the muscles, nerves and blood vessels they are worn over, and are, therefore, always comfortable. Yet they hold up the hose securely and dependably, giving that desirable wrinkleless ankle that particular men insist upon.
There are four other equally good reasons why you should be sure that it is Paris Garters you get from your haberdasher. If you are careless and accept a substitute, you cannot expect Paris comfort or Paris efficiency. Insist on getting the genuine.

B.W.A. DRAMATIC SECTION GIVING 2 PLAYS IN MAY

Plans For Productions To Be Discussed At Committee Meeting Tomorrow

Under the direction of the Dramatic Section of the British Women's Association two short plays are to be given at the Country Club about May 16 for the benefit of the Foreign Women's Home and the Social Service Board. Details in connection with the project will be discussed tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock at a meeting of the committee in charge to be held at the headquarters of the Association.

"The Rescuer," one of the plays to be given will be directed by Mrs. Chris Wingrove. The other, yet to be selected, will be coached by Mrs. Henry Jory.

The Dramatic Section of the Association held its first annual meeting on Monday. Mrs. Allstair Campbell presided.

The business of the meeting consisted in reading the minutes and the annual report. The Treasurer was able to show a bank balance of $1,000 in favor of the Section. This is the proceeds from the tea dance held recently at the Astor. After paying the expenses of Captain Evans' lecture at the Country Club, there will be $400 to divide between the Social Service Board and the Union Jack Club. This donation, at Captain Evans' suggestion, is given in memory of Sir Ernest Shackleton.

A new secretary, to take the place of Mrs. Cochran who is leaving town for six weeks, was appointed. Mrs. Jory volunteered to accept the office.

The Dramatic Section also agreed at the meeting to comply with the request of the Needlecraft Section to furnish three numbers on the program to be given by the Needlecraft's At Home on May 22.

Opium Smoking On Increase, He Says

(Reuter's Special Service)

London, April 10.—In a letter to the Manchester Guardian, the Rev. J. S. Helps, a missionary from China, declares that the statement reported to have been made by Mr. Chu Chao-hsin, the Chinese Charge d'Affaires, at the meeting of the Society for the Suppression of Opium, to the effect that opium smoking, expect where secretly practised, had practically disappeared in China, is incorrect.

He states that there has been a revival of opium planting and smoking in all but a few parts of China, for the past three or four years, which has not merely been encouraged, but has often been forced upon the people by the so-called military governors for the sake of revenue.

He also says that those who know China best fear that the situation in regard to opium smoking will soon be as bad as ever.

Stole $1,000 For Wedding Celebration

Marriage has its little trials and tribulations, as a coolie employed by the compradore for David Sassoon and Company discovered in the Mixed Court yesterday.

The compradore's assistant was given $1,000 to deposit with the International Banking Corporation, but instead went off and got married, spending $350 of the amount of the wedding feast and gay old time following the ceremony, and $650 paying off old debts.

Detective Sergeant Macdermott arrested him while still on his honeymoon but the compradore had a change of heart in court today and withdrew the charge on condition that he get the bigger portion of his money back. American Assessor Tenney and Magistrate Kwan gave the bridegroom a six month's suspended sentence.

Daily Mail Hears De Valera Has Been Deposed

(China Press Service)

Dublin, April 10.—Vehement denial was given today to the report in the London Daily Mail that De Valera had been deposed by the Irish Republican Army leaders.

Armed British soldiers appearing in the streets caused vastly more sensation that the pronunciamento of the Republicans regarding De Valera. This is the first time they have been seen since the truce went into effect.

Tullamore, April 10.—A crowd of men and women yesterday dragged Mr. Gavin Duffy, foreign minister of the Dail Cabinet, from the platform from which he was speaking in support of the treaty forming the Free Irish State.

He struggled for a moment and then calmly accepted the will of the crowd, finally leaving the hall when the addresses against the Dail grew too vehement.

London, April 10.—Depose De Valera was the demand at a secret meeting of the Irish Republican Army and its adherents who completely voted under those who favored De Valera. The upshot of the meeting was, it is reported in the Daily Mail, that De Valera no longer is to be recognised as part of the Irish Government.

INTERPORT HOCKEY TEAM TAKES ITS LAST WORKOUT ON POLO GROUNDS TODAY

Eleven Declared By Critic To Be Worthy Of Meeting Any China Team

If rain does not interfere the Shanghai Interport hockey team will take its last workout this afternoon on the Polo Grounds commencing at 4:20 o'clock prior to its departure tomorrow morning for Tientsin where it meets Tientsin and a combined team representing North China.

The men selected for the team are: Jones goal, Cobb and Collacao backs, Faers, Harvie and Tegetmeier half backs, Remedios, Encarnacao, Morgan, Oliviera and Leitao forwards. Healey today will substitute Tegetmeier who is already in the North.

The interport team, according to a critic well versed in local hockey, is not a brilliant one though thoroughly sound in every respect. It is one which represents the standard of hockey as played at its best in Shanghai.

If there is a weak spot it is to be found in the attack. But if the forwards could develop passes that are accurate in time, pace and direction they have the speed to break through the best defense. The form shown by them at present is good but there is ample scope for the elimination of fancy play which ends in thin air and the substituting of straight forward hockey.

Individual brilliancy, the critic says, unless of a very high standard indeed, rarely penetrates a sound defense, though there are occasions when individual play is correct, as for instance when a wing is left with a clear field.

As regards the defense of the Shanghai team there is but one point for criticism and that is that the halves are too prone to pass to the wings when the play is being pressed beyond the opposing twenty-five. At this juncture of the attack concentration on the center is desirable and only in exceptional cases should the ball be winged.

In general, nevertheless, the Shanghai team is one which is worthy to meet the best team that Tientsin can put into the field and even though, from accounts received, the odds are against the local side there is no reason at all why they should take the field with any hope other than that of winning.

This evening's practice is expected to put the finishing touches to form and style on the selected team. Speed will be the principle factor considered. The men will turn out in rubber or other light shoes, excepting the heavy studded or spiked footwear and the eleven will be put through a fast pace in preparation for the fast hard dirt field in the North. White shirts with the interport badge, and white trunks will be worn today. The team entrains tomorrow morning at 9:30 a.m.

INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETIC ASS'N PLAN YEARS MEET

Track and field meets preliminary to the big National meet of East and North China colleges will be held, May 13 by the East China Intercollegiate athletic association, which includes St. Johns, Nanyang college and Shanghai Baptist college on the field of the University of Nanking. The North China association holds their sectional meet in the north on the same date.

The East China association in their track Bulletin No. 1, given out yesterday outlines the fundamental first arrangements for the meet as follows:

1 Place.—The meet will be held on the field of the University of Nanking.

2 Date.—May 13, 1922. At the meeting held in Shanghai it was agreed to have the meet on May 20 or two weeks before the National Meet. The date for the National Meet will be May 20. North China are having their meet on May 13 and as the E. C. I. A. A. meet will be the only meet held in Central or East China, it is wise to have our meet also on May 13. Also local conditions have made this necessary as on the following week there will be two Mission meetings held in Nanking which will tax the accomodations for foreigners to the limit and as guest rooms are scarce in Nanking, we would do well not to compete with these meetings.

3 Rules.—The rules to govern the meet will be those of the Far Eastern Contest for this year Especial attention is called to the new starting rules. The following exceptions to the Far Eastern Rules should be noted. The order of events as laid down in the E. C. I. A. A. Bylaws and also the system of scoring in the Bylaws will be followed.

4 Trials—Trial heats and trials in the field events will be held on Friday afternoon. These trials will include 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, 400 yard run, 120 yard hurdles, 220 yard hurdles, broad jump, shot put, discus throw, javelin throw, and relay race.

5 Entertainment.—As it would be impossible to reach Nanking from Shanghai on Friday, the University of Nanking is very glad to welcome all visiting teams on Thursday May 11.

6 Expenses.—According to the decision reached at the special meeting in Shanghai each team pays its own expenses for travel board and lodging. The University of Nanking undertakes to keep the living expenses of visiting teams as low as possible However if Institutions should care to make other arrangements

Former St. Louisan Pitched Perfect Ball Game

George W. Bradle.

Hale and hearty at sixty-seven years, as clear-skinned, snowy-haired and bright-eyed a warrior as ever retired on righteous laurels, George Washington Bradle, Philadelphia policeman, stands forth as the first man in major baseball to pitch a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach first-base game, a feat that came as a climax to four straight shut-outs on four straight days. It was way back in 1876, when baseball was blinking in its infancy, that Bradle pitched the "perfect" game, and in the forty-six years of its corporate existence baseball has known but five of these games to dot its annals and add sparkle to its history. Clip out this picture of Bradle and put it in your scrapbook as a monument to the king of early-day moundmen.

LOCAL BASEBALL FANS FIGURING ON FIRST GAME

Local baseball fans already are figuring on the first real game of the Shanghai Season. The report that the mother ship Buffalo and its flock of destroyers were starting on a cruise north from Manila, with a probable stop here has started a movement for the selection of a team with which to challenge the sailors, who will be fresh from a long season of baseball in the Philippines, fit to give the local men a try-out worth while.

Aside from urging more practice by those men already in baseball harness these optimistic fans are insisting that all of last season's stars get out in uniform and, further that some sort of selective training be adopted to give the management a good idea as to who is really who this year in Shanghai baseball.

One of the suggestions offered is that the baseball squad of candidates be divided off on Sunday into two teams, one a Married nine and the other a Single nine for a five inning tryout. The argument is that such a division would give greater opportunity to the management to select the best men in the squad, with the good men mixed with the bad.

The fan with the suggestion offers a roster of candidates as follows:

Married Men: Griffith catcher, Scott, Gallop, Church, pitchers; Holiday, Swinehart, Miccia, Bills, C. J. Smith, infielders; Posner, S. F. Smith, Payton, Tuck, Jenkins, Hubbard, outfielders; and Brown utility.

Single Men: Dennison, Wynn pitchers, Hirsh, Wall catchers; Maloney, Hopkins, Irle, Brattan, Ladd, Hendrickson, Olsen infielders; and Ollerdessen, Wilhelmi, Cameron, Robertson, Morrison, outfielders.

Men of unknown marital status are listed: Holland, White, Hoffman and Snyder.

The suggestion is worth while. All that is needed is for Dennison, Irle, Hendrickson, and all of the other old and new men to come out for the tryout, and help the whole squad to progress along constructive and intelligent lines. Every man out so far this spring has shown good baseball promise. All that remains now is to locate the candidates in their places for team drilling. If the men report for training through the next few days a game on Sunday may easily be arranged.

The squad worked out again yesterday afternoon on the ball field. One of the features of the drill was the work of Cameron, the cricketer who is taking his first taste of baseball. He fielded the ball from short and in the outfield, and he handled himself like a first stringer. He grabbed them up from all positions and pegged them with a throw that Maloney might envy. He shaped well also at the bat though he still has a little of the cricketer's chop. Cameron will make a good outfielder for the nine and when he wises up on the inside game, he might move to the infield.

The squad practice again tonight at 5 o'clock.

MAJOR LEAGUES OPEN NEW SEASON TODAY; BABE RUTH STILL UNDER SUSPENSION

Yanks Start Against Washington While Giants Open At Brooklyn

WHERE THEY START
American League
Philadelphia at Boston
New York at Washington
Detroit at Cleveland
St. Louis at Chicago.
National League
Boston at Philadelphia
Chicago at Cincinnati
Pittsburg at St. Louis
Brooklyn at New York

New York, April 11.—All America is on its toes awaiting the opening of the baseball season tomorrow. All teams in both big leagues go into action full of confidence as a result of their showing during the training season in the South and sport writers in the various big league cities are outdoing themselves in predicting pennant winners for the home-town teams.

The New York Yankees will go into action against the Washington Senators without the services of Captain "Babe" Ruth, world's champion home-run hitter, who is still under suspension by Judge K. M. Landis, supreme arbiter of baseballdom. Most unbiased critics pick the Yanks to win the American League pennant again this year.

The New York Giants, winner of the world's title last season, open the season at the Polo grounds against the Brooklyn national leaguers.

Record breaking crowds are predicted for the season's openers and the magnates are looking forward to an unusually prosperous season.

Public School Midgets Win In Last Soccer Game

The final match for the Midget football championship among the Shanghai Schools was played on Saturday, when the Public School beat the St. Francis Xavier's College by one goal to nil. Prior to this match it was difficult to say which of these two teams was entitled to claim the Midget Cup. Each had won five matches and lost one, and each had beaten the other once. Besides which, the season's scores were more reminiscent of cricket than of football. The S.P.S. had scored 5 goals with 3 against them! the S.F.X.C., 41 for, and 2 against them.

By winning on Saturday the S.P.S. definitely won the cup for the second year in succession and the second time in its history. The winning goal of this well-contested match was scored by L. Green just before half-time. This game completes the season in the Inter-School matches.

The Carlill Cup for seniors goes again this year, for the third year running, to the Public School who have won all six League matches played, having scored 42 goals as against 3.

For the second year in succession, the St. Francis Xavier's College have won the Juniors Cup, the Public School and the Thomas Hanbury School being "runners up" in order. The games have all been closely contested and the scores low, with the Public School showing marked improvement late in the season.

The Prentice Midget Cup, presented by J. Prentice, Esq., in 1916, has again been won by the Public School, who were closely followed by the St. Francis Xavier's College.

JAPAN SELLING RUSSIAN OWNED FISHERIES, CLAIM

Vladivostok Chamber Of Commerce Makes Protest

(Dalta News Agency)

Harbin, April 6.—The Vladivostok Chamber of Commerce has made a resolution protesting against the bidding for the lease of 107 fishing districts appointed by the Japanese in the town of Alexandrovsk on Sahalien Island. The resolution reads:

"Seizing the control of the fisheries in the Sahalien Province and introducing its regime limiting the activities and rights of Russian citizens, the Japanese command carries on the policy of interfering with the home affairs of the Russian people in the Far East. Now the main fisheries of Russian lease-holders are being offered for lease by the Japanese.

"The unavoidable transference of the main Russian fishing districts on the Amur River into the hands of the Japanese is bound to bring about the extinction of Russian national interests in this part of Russian territory which formerly supplied fish to the entire Siberia and a part of European Russia. The transference is also bound to deprive thousands of Russian workmen of employment.

"In view of the foregoing considerations, the Chamber of Commerce feels it its duty to express a protest against the unlawful activities of the Japanese command in Sahalien. These activities are a negation of the spirit of the solemn declarations of the representatives of Japanese authorities and those of the Japanese delegation in Washington, where Mr. Shidehara made a statement concerning inviolability of Russian dominions in the Far East, non-interference of Japan with Russian home affairs, and respect of our rights.'"

The expense of the meet will be divided equally among the Institutions according to the number of contestants.

7 Entries.—Entries should be sent to J. M. Speers Jr., University of Nanking by May 1 in order to facilitate the printing of the usual program. It is not necessary to specify the events a man will enter, but only the names of all the men who will compete.

The total number of Chinese and foreigners who will come to Nanking should also be sent before May 1 and a statement whether or not it is the desire of the Institution to be entertained by the University of Nanking.

8 Representation on Field.—The same rules will hold good as last year in regard to representatives of the various colleges on the field. Only one official representative from each college will be allowed on the field and the rule in regard to coaching will be rigedly enforced.

9 Numbers.—The number for the athletes will be sent as soon as the number of men from each college is known. The numbers will be given according to the alphabetical list of Universities went in with the bankrupt into speculation. There was no widows, no poor men as creditors. Among the creditors is the Netherlands Trading Society, who sold £87,000, while Mr. Morriss claimed some Tls. 102,000. These banks and others should have known the security they were relying on.

The judge: How many small creditors are there?—There are no small creditors.

CALLS HIM 'CLERK'

Continuing, Mr. Harris said the banks should have known that they were dealing with a clerk. The bankrupt's only crime was that he was unsuccessful in his speculations. The Bankruptcy Act was for the relief of the bankrupt, while supension was a punishment for the bankrupt, Mr. Harris submitted.

It was well known that the year in which Judah Ezra had lost his money there was a drop in shares and he was not in a position to take up the shares, Mr. Harris continued. The crime for which he was guilty was that he speculated. He speculated without luck or success.

Mr. Harris asked the Judge to consider all the facts and also that the people who were dealing with Judah Ezra knew the risks they were running as his position was one of clerk. He hoped therefore that the suspension should not be for more than two years. There was no authority for the time of suspension. What his Lordship should consider was how the case came about. There was no fraudulent intent or a desire to rob the poor. Other people had speculated and speculated with great success but the bankrupt speculated and suffered a heavy loss.

Dealing with the complaint of the official Receiver that the bankrupt had not kept proper books of account Mr. Harris said the bankrupt was a clerk in his brother's office and he kept no books. He had certain books about his dealings in speculation, and these were passed on to the Official Receiver. His position was described in these books, and there was no question of the bankrupt not disclosing his creditors. It was not therefore correct to say that the bankrupt did not keep proper books.

DENIES CHARGE

Mr. Harris also disputed the complaint of the official receiver that the bankrupt did not attempt to get employment and had been living extravagantly. It was true that he had been all this time without work but he had recently obtained a job on $150 per month His Lordship would agree that it was very difficult for a bankrupt to get employment. The only evidence, according to the official receiver, was that the bankrupt had been seen driving in a motor car. Surely, it could not be suggested that the bankrupt should not be seen in a motor car.

The Judge: I do not pay much particular attention to that clause. It does not necessarily mean that he is extravagant.

The next clause that Mr. Harris desired to oppose was one in which the receiver complained of the bankrupt borrowing money after disclosing that he was an undischarged bankrupt. As far as he could see it had nothing to do with the bankruptcy. He did not think that Judah Ezra had done anything wrong.

The official receiver had askod that the application be refused. What advantage, Mr. Reader Harris asked, was it to refuse an application of this kind. There was no chance of the amounts being satisfied.

The Judge: You speak of the refusal of discharge as a punishment. Is it not preventing him from carrying out more rash and hazardous speculations?

Mr. Harris remarked that this was the first time that Mr. Ezra had done it. The experience gained will prevent him from doing so in future.

The Judge said that the Court could not take that view.

Mr. Harris: I asked that it should be suspended for two years. The people who are opposing him are parties.

"NOT PUNISHMENT"

Asking that the application for discharge be refused, Mr. Dickson, the official receiver, maintained that such refusal would not constitute punishment on Mr. Ezra. Mr. Dickson said that he was acting for the protection of the community at large.

"Mr. Reader Harris remarked that the bankrupt has had his lesson," Mr. Dickson continued: "yet within six weeks of his ajudication, Ezra had speculated again and was obviously as rash as before—he expected to make 30 to 40 percent within two months.

"With regard to the question of rash and hazardous speculation, my learned friend has argued that the bankrupt should not be penalised because his creditors were also speculating and also because there were only seven creditors.

"Five creditors were taken over by Ellis Ezra within three months of Judah Ezra's adjudication.

"It was held in the case of the two Netherlands banks the Court held that there was no gambling and that the transactions were perfectly legitimate.

PROTECT PUBLIC

"With regard to the complaint that I made about Ezra's books, I submit that a man dealing in millions of taels should keep proper accounts. Had he done this, the work of the official receiver would have been simplified.

"In his public examination, the bankrupt admitted that he was insolvent in Christmas, 1920. In September when he was insolvent, he had sold £165,000 to the Netherlands Trading Society.

"I have written frequently to Mr. Ezra concerning employment and have also seen him on the subject. He came to me and asked me whether" there was any harm in his incurring money debts and I told him that he should not borrow more than £10 unless he informed the lender that he was an undischarged bankrupt. I can not see why there should be any difficulty about Mr. Ezra getting employment. He has wealthy relatives. In my opinion he has made no serious efforts to get work."

Mr. Dickson, in again asking that the discharge not be allowed, maintained that "it is not a punishment to the debtor but protection for the general public of Shanghai."

OTHERS OBJECT

Mr. J. Reitsma, the accountant of the Netherlands Trading Society, who represented his bank, desired to endorse what had been said by the Official Receiver. He opposed the application for the same reason.

Mr. C. A. Weir, in addressing the Judge said: I am acting under the power of attorney for Mr Morriss. I take objection to Mr. Reader Harris' statement that the creditors were engaged in these gambling transactions with Judah Ezra. In Morriss' case it was a cash loan for over a million taels as against security. When the market was dropping against this security, Morriss asked Ezra to make good the margin. He made no attempt to do it although called on several times. Then they had a meeting at which it was agreed that Morriss should take over the shares on much less than was advanced. Morriss took over the shares at 125 when they could be got in the market at 100. At the last hearing Ezra said that Morriss had taken these shares for the purpose of cornering the market. This is a misstatement. Morriss is not likely to takeover at 125 if he is going to corner the market when they could be had at 100. Very shortly afterwards business was done at 97. On taking them over it left a balance of Tls. 100,000 plus interest which Morriss is actually out of pocket. Therefore I take objection to Mr. Reader Harris statement that it was for the purpose of speculation that the money was advanced.

FLEMING IN COURT

Mr. W. S. Fleming, on behalf of the Phillipine National Bank, said that the claim of the bank had not been as yet proved. His clients opposed this application for discharge on the same grounds as stated by the official receiver, he said.

Mr. J. J. Judah, a stock and share broker, addressed the Judge. He said: I sold shares as my personal shares, although I am a broker, and to prove that I had the shares I sold, I have a receipt from the bank to show that I had 800 shares. When the settlement time came he refused to take delivery and there was a difference of Tls. 14,000. Therefore it was not a gambling transaction I had the shares which I had sold to Ezra. The contract plainly stated that I was the principal.

Mr. Reader Harris said he was sorry if his remarks had caused ill-feeling to the bankrupt's creditors. They were rash and hazardous gambling transactions on his client's part and the other creditors were parties to the transactions. He did not suggest that the bankrupt was gambling with the creditors, he said.

Judge Peter Grain said that he felt that in this case he must refuse the application.

Mr. Harris had suggested that some of the firms and banks had participated in this gambling. Some of these creditors had come before the Court to say that it was not so. In the case of the Netherlands Trading Society he had already said that the transaction entered into with he bankrupt was not speculative. It was a perfectly legitimate deal, the Judge continued.

At the time that the Netherlands Trading Society had entered into the deal they had reason to believe that the bankrupt was a man of substance. It was a perfectly bona fide transaction. When a man who had known for several months that he was insolvent, and continued to gamble and this speculation was subsequently largely increased, Judge Grain said he felt it his duty to protect the public. At the present moment he would refuse the application, but there was nothing to prevent the application being made before two years. During that time if the bankrupt made any money or was making any attempt to do something for his creditors, the Court would consider the application more favorably.

Mr. Harris: I take it that your Lordship absolutely refuses it for two years.

His Lordship said that application could be made within that time.

HOUSE LIKELY TO ACCEPT DENBY'S NAVAL PROGRAM

Secretary's Protest Against Drastic Cuts Is Heeded

(China Press Service)

Washington, April 10.—The storm of protest raised by secretary Denby in his opposition to the Navy Bill as reported by the House Committee has increased in intensity now that the bill is before the House in which Representatives Britten and Mac-Arthur are leading the fight.

Mr. Britten said that if the British and Japanese delegates had framed the bill, they could not have taken steps more deliberately calculated to reduce the United States to the third place among naval powers. Mr. McArthur said that a canvas of the House indicated an amendment to provide at least 80,000 men instead of the 65,000 the bill makes the maximum.

The minority report of the committee declared that the reduction in personnel was a great setback to the naval policy agreed upon in the Arms Conference and asserted that 86,000 men, 6,000 being apprentices, was none too few to man the ships that the Treaty allowed.

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, April 10.—Secretary Edwin Denby's attack on the Naval Bill was due to the fact that the measure had been amended, by the Naval Committee of the House of Representatives, whose further reductions in expenditure and personnel, were regarded by the administration as incompatible with the maintenance of the strength of the Navy as decided at the Washington Conference.

STEAMER CHINA AND MONTEAGLE ARRIVING TODAY

Two steamers arriving today from America are the China of the China Mail which sailed from San Francisco March 18 by way of Honolulu and Japanese ports and the Monteagle of the Canadian Pacific Services which sailed from Vancouver, B.C. on March 20 by way of Japanese ports.

The China will dock at the China Merchants Central wharf about 11:30 o'clock this morning, bringing a full passenger list, 500 tons of general merchandise and 179 bags of mail for this port. The vessel will be dispatched to Hongkong direct at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The Monteagle is due in at noon and will dock at the Shanghai and Hongkew wharf. The steamer will be dispatched direct for Hongkong at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Following these ships the Golden State of the Pacific Mail which sailed from San Francisco on March 25 is due in on Saturday.

The next outbound mail for America will be taken on the Hoosier State of the Pacific Mail sailing for San Francisco by way of Japan and Honolulu Saturday and due to arrive at San Francisco on May 4.

New York-Chicago "Air Liner" Planned For 1924

DESPITE the fact scores of lives were lost in the destruction of the giant dirigibles ZR-2 and Roma, purchased respectively from England and Italy by the United States, plans are being evolved by the Connecticut Aircraft Company of New Haven for the establishment in 1924 of a commercial air line between New York and Chicago. "The Aurora," shown here, will be 250 feet long and capable of carrying 300 passengers and 20,000 pounds of baggage, declare officials of the company. Plans for its construction already have been made and if they materialise, say the backers, "flying passengers" soon will be able to eat breakfast in New York and fly to Chicago in time for dinner.

No Famine In Chekiang; Funds Spent On Dikes

(China Press Service)

Huchow, Chekiang, April 6.—Recently a thorough investigation has been made throughout the northern part of Chekiang Province in an attempt to locate the famine. When word was noised about that something like $400,000.00 had been set aside for famine relief work in Chekiang, strong appeals began immediately to go into headquarters for funds to relieve the famine stricken masses in all parts of the province.

But the Famine Relief Committee in Hangchow who was responsible for the distribution of these funds, sent out committees consisting of both Chinese and foreigners to investigate the territories for which funds were asked. The officials of Huchow asked for $100,000 for Huchow but when the committee made their investigation they found no actual famine existed.

They did find however that in many places the floods had broken the dikes of the canals and much damage had been done. The farmers affected had already begun the repairing of the dikes, each man contributing five days work for every mow of land he had inundated.

The committee recommended that $14,000 of the $100,000 asked for be appropriated to Huchow for helping in the repair of dikes in this vicinity, thus preventing a famine from coming as a result of floods during the rainy seasons.

Business Is Too Good In Siberia Asserts Uchida

(China Press Service)

Tokio, April 11.—Viscount Uchida, in a statement to the Japanese press, failed to confirm the report that an agreement had been reached between Japan and the Far Eastern Republic at Darien.

Viscount Uchida said that if Japanese troops were withdrawn from Russia Japanese residents necessarily must follow and admitted that such a move would be a severe hardship as Japanese merchants there were doing an excellent business.

The viscount also declared emphatically that the Korean border must be guarded against Bolshevik encroachments or attacks. Japan, he said would join the other nations at the Genoa conference in aiding Russia in every way possible, but would demand that Russia's debts to Japan be paid.

Adapted from the play by
ANNE CRAWFORD FLEXNER
It tells an old legend that on "ALL SOULS' EVE" the spirits of the dead may return to console and help those they left behind. In this drama the spirit of a dead mother returns, finds illness and desolation in the once happy home, and enters the soul of the little Irish maid servant, who, transformed, is able to give consolation and happiness to the husband and child.
IT IS A MOST POIGNANT DRAMA OF LOVE AMBITION, TREACHERY, TRAGEDY AND FINAL HAPPINESS.

Municipal Notification

No. 2965.

The following Resolutions will be brought forward by the Council at the Annual Meeting of Ratepayers to be held in the Town Hall on April 19, 1922, at 2 o'clock p.m., and are published for general information:

Resolutions I, II, and III.—Formal business and adoption of Rules of Procedure.

Resolution IV.—That the Report and Accounts for the year ending December 31, 1921, be passed.

Resolution V.—That the estimated expenditure for 1922, contained in the Budget proposed by the retiring Council, together with the recommendations attached thereto, be approved and adopted, and that the Council be and it is hereby authorized to impose, collect and recover the rates, taxes, dues and fees recommended therein, and to raise, should it be considered expedient to do so, upon such terms and in such manner as the Council may in its discretion think fit, a sum not exceeding Tls. 8,000,000 or the equivalent of this sum, for the purposes defined in the estimate of Extraordinary Expenditure.

Resolution VI.—That the Council be and it is hereby authorized and directed to arrange for the reassessment of the land comprised within the limits of the Settlement, during the current year, such reassessment to come into force as from the first day of January, 1923, and to engage such professional assistance for the performance of the work as may be found expedient.

Resolution VII.—Election of Land Commissioner for the ensuing year.

Resolution VIII.—Election of four Governors of the General Hospital for the ensuing year.

Resolution IX—Election of two members of the Permanent Education Committee.

Ratepayers intending to ask questions in regard to the Accounts or other matters connected with the foregoing Resolutions, are requested to give notice of such intention at least 24 hours before the Meeting, so that a full answer or other explanation may be given.

Ratepayers desirous of bringing forward additional motions, or of nominating duly qualified persons willing to serve under Resolutions VII, VIII and IX, are required to give notice thereof to the undersigned before 4 p.m., on April 12, for due publication.

By order,
N. O. LIDDELL.

Special Notice To Mariners

No. 627.

China—East Coast.

Swatow District—Swatow Harbour.

Sunken wreck in fairway
Wreck buoy established.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Motor-vessel "Pakwo" lies a sunken wreck in the fairway of Swatow Harbour, southward of the Standard Oil Company's oil tank installation. The wreck is marked by a green buoy, on which a green light is exhibited, weather permitting, from sunset to sunrise.

The wreck is so situated in the fairway that vessels can pass on either side of it, but the greater breadth of fairway lies to the southward of the wreck.

CAUTION:—Mariners are warned that the Wreck buoy and its light are unwatched and therefore cannot be totally relied upon.

BRITISH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

CHINESE LANGUAGE SCHOOL.

For some time past the Committee of the Chamber have had under consideration the institution of an advanced course for the benefit of students who, having gained their final certificate, wish to take up the study of documentary Chinese. The course will be essentially practical in character and will be designed to place students in a position to deal with official and business correspondence, notifications, and accounts and such other subjects as may be useful to them more especially when travelling in the interior. Before definitely deciding on the details of the course the Committee would like to be able to form some estimate of the number of students likely to avail themselves of it. All interested are accordingly requested to send their names to the undersigned together with an indication of the kind of work on which they are, or are likely to be, engaged.

Major Johnson Gets His 27th Decoration

Manila, April 10.—Major Samuel I. Johnson, ne[illegible] manager of a lumber company in Occidental Negros, and world's long distance champion holder of medals, has been awarded his 27th decoration for service as head of the international police force at Vladivostok.

The decoration will take place in Manila the next time Major Johnson makes a trip here.

The latest decoration given Major Johnson is the Cross of the Order of Leopold II, of Belgium, the first he has received from that country.

The award was made January 6, 1922 by King Albert of Belgium and forwarded to the Belgium consul, Paul B. Versteeten.

The majority of the medals awarded Major Johnson were in connection with his work in Vladivostok during the war. He commanded soldiers of all allied nations and headed several attacks on Bolshevik forces. Major Johnson speaks most of the languages of the men he commanded.

Major Johnson is well known in Shanghai.

Science Congress In Belgium Next Year

(Chung Mei Service)

Peking, April 7.—The Ministry of Foreign Affairs is in receipt of a communication from the Bureau of the International Commission for the Administrative Sciences, announcing the organisation of a second congress to be held in September 1923 at Brussels, Belgium. The first congress meet in 1910, since when no further congresses have been called on account of the would war. Official delegates from 23 countries were represented in 1910, and the previous participants, China included, are again invited to attend.

The congress will be held in the interest of frank discussion of methods of administration in municipalities as well as States, and also in public and private administration. Members of the League of Nations are to be invited in addition to the nations which met in 1910, as for example, newly created countries like Czecho-Slovakia. The Spanish delegate, Count de Torre Velez, has proposed the discussion of military and naval administration, but this proposal has not yet been acted upon.

Spot and forward bar silver were down ¼d. in London yesterday.

The New York price declined to 65⅝ cents, and the London-New York cross rate improved to 442¼.

The only changes in the official quotations here today were a rise in the Gold dollar rate to 72 and a drop in the yen rate to 66¾.

The market in the early part of the morning was easy, business in Sterling being done as low as 3-3⅜ for June and Gold dollars at 72¾.

Later on in the day rates steadied up, there being good sellers of Sterling all the afternoon at 3-3⅝ for any delivery to June and sellers of Gold dollars at 73¼ April and 73⅜ May-June.

America and India sold silver in London yesterday and the market there as well as in New York was reported as steady.

London Banker Would Pay War Debt With Big Bond Issue

(Reuter's Service)
London, April 10.—Mr. F. C. Goodenough, Chairman of Barclays Bank, Ltd., in addressing the American Chamber of Commerce of London, said that an adjustment of war bebts was essential to save the world from an impossible situation.

He suggested that the amount payable by each debtor nation should be finally decided as soon as was practicable and then bonds should be created and gradually offered to the public for investment, supported by national guarantees endorsed upon the bonds, which, Mr. Goodenough said, he was convinced would find a ready market of investors all over the world.

NATIONALITY BILL
(Reuter's Service)
London, April 10.—At question time in the House of Commons today, Mr. Edward Shortt said that the bill dealing with the nationality of children of British parents born abroad had been drafted and that endeavors were being made to obtain the concurrence of all the Dominions so that the bill could be taken at the earliest possible moment.

He said that the assent of Canada and Newfoundland had not yet been received but that representations were being made to Canada.

WAR IN MOROCCO
(French Wireless through Reuter)
Paris, April 10.—Advices from Morocco state that Spanish troops have occupied Dar Quedbani, an important position overlooking the district of Cubdana.

Chita Army Had 4,400 Men In Attack On Japanese Forces

(Reuter's Pacific Service)
Peking, April 8.—Further details of the recent fighting between Bolshevik and Japanese troops on the border of the Vladivostok neutral zone indicate that the Red forces comprised four regiments of infantry, one regiment of cavalry and about four hundred Red Partisans, or about 4,400 men in all.

The entire Red body was not, however, engaged in the attack on the neutral zone, only about one thousand men coming into contact with the Japanese. The Japanese casualties are understood to include a number of wounded but no killed.

The Red losses are believed to have been heavy but are difficult to estimate. The opinion is expressed from Vladivostok that the Reds, having learned the strength of the Japanese positions, are unlikely to renew their offensive.

Chow Tse-chi Turns Down Premiership

(China Press Service)
Peking, April 12.—Chow Tse-chi has refused the appointment as premier, thus further complicating matters for President Hsu Shih-chang.

Chow claims that if he accepts the position, he will be considered as conniving to deprive Liang Shih-yi of his position.

In the meantime Chow has been appointed Minister of Education to act concurrently, which means a conflab with the President and a probable acceptance by Chow of both positions.

A Remarkable Relief Work

A RELIEF work in which the sufferers received five per cent more in actual cash benefit than the contributors gave, after the deduction of all overhead, administrative and transportation expenses, is remarkable, but this is not the only remarkable feature of the Kansu Earthquake Relief work now closing up and the difficulties and marvellous accomplishments of which Mr. George Findlay Andrews explained in his illustrated lecture at the Peking Union Medical College Auditorium a few nights ago.

Mr. Andrews was placed in charge of the work of releasing the damned up streams caused by landslides scattered over an area of thirteen thousand square miles (and in carrying out which he travelled by cart, animal and on foot 3,400 miles), following the investigation made by the Earthquake Relief Expedition under Reverend John Hayes and Mr. Josef W. Hall. Mr. Andrews worked under the Lanchow Relief Committee, of which Mr. E. J. Man was chairman and in which Mr. Man and the Kansu Postal Commissioner, a Cantonese, Mr. Chan But-to, showed signal initiative. He had as assistant field directors Mr. A. Koenigswald, Mr. R. Seaman, Mr. A. S. Jamison, and several Chinese sent out by the Lanchow committee.

These men all proved to possess those qualities of ruggedness, fearlessness, ingenuity and executive ability which alone could have made their stupendous undertaking a success. Some $140,000, were supplied the Lanchow committee by the Peking United International Famine Relief Committee and the Shanghai international relief body, and this modest sum was made to cover the expense of cutting through twenty-one blockages, building four stretches of road including one considerable bridge, and partially constructing a water conduit, and still show a balance of $5,000. The number of natives employed reached as many at one time as fifteen thousand, to whom high wages were intentionally paid that they might save some money to use in rebuilding their destroyed homes. The work was begun in May and the last of the twenty lakes was drained in October.

Considerable engineering skill was required for the cutting of canals, through the loose debris which had slid down from the hills filling the valleys, sometimes three-quarters of a mile long and two hundred-fifty feet deep. Houses containing bodies were excavated at a depth of 200 feet. In the largest cutting, upon which three thousand eight hundred men were employed, the light railway used in the construction of the Lanchow Steel Bridge twelve years ago was employed, having been repaired and transported on camel-back one-hundred fifty miles from Lanchow to the site of the cutting. In all other cases the work was hand labor throughout.

The time for the release of the blocked streams which had turned the valleys into lakes, coincidod with the torrential summer rains. This gave rise to some exciting moments, when thousands of diggers raced with the elements in efforts to let out the lakes before they could creep up to the towns and cities nearby, and before the water-pressure could become so great as to force the blockages, causing catastrophe in the valley below.

Many of the experiences related by Mr. Andrews are of the hair-raising variety. In spite of the dangers of the work, of the cloudbursts, of armed brigands (whose close acquaintance Mr. Andrews did not escapé although he lost not one cent of committe money to them, and of the continuous earthquake shocks whic occasionally brought the banks of the cuttings down upon the diggers below, not one life was lost by accident. Such a record is marvellous and Mr. Andrews attributes it to Divine Providence. In one case several workmen were buried by a cave-in, but were rescued alive.

The commisariat and paymaster's department of the work provided some of the most interesting problems encountered. The Langchow Committee were able to cash the checks of the Peking and Shanghai relief bodies at a premium refifteen percent, which accounts for the fact that the Kansu sufferers received more than their commiserators gave. But Lanchow had to take their money in silver bullion, ornaments, Russian roubles and Indian rupees, and other types of silver of all percentages of purity. This, had to be transported in carts to the scene of the diggings, where, again, it had to be turned into cash for the payment of the men. Neither dollars nor coppers yet exist in any quantity in Kansu.

On the largest cutting seven tons of cash, requiring twelve carts to haul them, were required for a days' wages payment, at 500 cash per man. Although good backing was received from the local merchants, who forewent their temptation to profit by the unusual demand for money as well as provisions, the available cash resources of the district were quite insufficient. The Relief Administration attempted to put out provincial government paper currency, but the workmen would not touch it. As a last expediency, it put out its own paper currency, in notes of 100 to 400 cash, and so well did the workmen and community take to these that they were soon passing above par. These were all redeemed before the Field Director withdrew. It was necessary for Mr. Andrews to employ a silver smith and smelt into ingots the miscellaneous supply of silver received.

Mr. Andrews is an unqualified supporter of labor relief. Aside from the fact that the excavation work saved a large portion of Kansu province from further devastation and loss of life, and saved Honan and Shantung provinces on the lower Yellow River from the silting and flooding which would have inevitably attended the bursting out of the pent-up waters on the river's tributaries in Kansu, no other form of relief could have come so near to giving the right amount of assistance to the needy sufferers.

Mr. Andrews highly praises the recommendation made by the members of the investigation expedition, that relief should be confined to excavation work. Although tremendous local and official opposition to this recommendation was encountered at the time of its presentation, the people of the affected area had largely become reconciled to it by the time Mr. Andrews began work.

In Haiyuan, situated on the alkali plain, where no excavation work was urgent, but where the people were in desperate need of help, the relief administration undertook the construction of an eight li conduit to supply the city, which heretofore has had to drink bitter water, with sweet water from the hills to the west of the city. The administration are shipping in by camel the necessary cement for the completion of the work, which the city elders have promised to carry out.

The many swept-out sections of the Great Western Road, the artery of communication between China and Central Asia, were again made passable by the work of the Relief Committee, and which constitutes no small portion of the benefit done the people and country by it. In one case a bridge was constructed of logs from the trees which line the road from the Shensi border to Lanchow, and which were planted out by the Hunanese General Tso who drove back the Moslems in 1872. In a few years' time only the absence of these great trees will indicate the stretches of the road which disappeared when "the mountains walked."

ARMS AND THE MAN

Editor: THE CHINA PRESS.

Sir, "Report of Officer commanding Volunteer Corps" will be found on pages 2A to 19A, Municipal Report 1921, part I. Various figures relative thereto will be found on pages 50c, 74C, 75C, 78c, 84c,97c, and 105c.

When writing in the Press a year ago, 13th April 1921, on Municipal Expenditure, I urged as strongly as I was able the imperative need for drastic economy and conservation of public funds.

I venture to quote some sentences written a year ago:—

"The bloated estimates, the extravagant ideas, the ludicrous proposals which are contained in the Municipal Budget for 1921 clearly indicate, in my opinion, that the men who are responsible for these things are quite out of touch with the demand of the times and the pressing need for effective economy."

"Shanghai cannot afford squandermania any longer. It has gone too far as it is."

"Instead of conserving the public purse, 'doing without things', and minimizing as far as possible the burden of taxation, the Shanghai bureaucracy has indulged in an improvident orgy of spending public funds. I say it ought to cease."

"Let us now examine some items in the Budget for 1921.

(I convert taels at 73 into nearest thousand Dollars for purposes of easy comparison.)

THE ARMY

1913 ...	$ 58,000
1920 ...	$ 73,000
1921 ...	$133,000 (estimate)

Is War imminent?"

That was all written a year ago.

Here is the sequal to this part of the story.

..The 1921 Estimated Expenditure of $133,000 for the Army has turned out to be $160,000 less than the actual amount spent'

For the year 1921, the huge sum of $293,000 was actually spent on the Volunteer Corps.

For 1922, the Estimate is given as $280,000!

I ask this year,- with whom does the Council contemplate war?

The closing paragraph of the Commandant's Report for 1921, says:

"I think the Council has good reason to be satisfied with the state of the Corps generally, both as regards numbers and efficiency, and with the results of the comparatively large expenditure on its equipment, etc., during the first year succeeding the 'Starvation' period."

Of course I do not know what the Council think but I have looked up the figures for what the Commandant playfully calls "the 'Starvation' period."

I have only gone back as far as 1913.

VOLUNTEER EXPENDITURE

1913	$63,000
1914	$76,000
1915	$78,000
1916	$63,500
1917	$75,000
1918	$62,000
1919	$76,000
1920	$73,000
1921	$293,000

The actual average for the eight years (1913 to 1920) is $71,000.

I do not know whether the "Starvation" period, to which the Commandant refers, is supposed to date back to 1913, or to the beginning of this century, or even to the middle of the last, but it certainly seems that so far as he can arrange it the bad old days of a paltry $71,000 a year are gone for ever, and the new era of well-nigh $300,000 a year for the Municipal Army is now in full blast.

ACTUAL EXPENDITURE

1913 to 1920 ...	$71,000 a year
1921 ..	$293,000

ESTIMATED

1922	$280,000

ACTUAL

1922 Goodness knows?

I really don't see why we foreigners should say unkind things about Chinese Tuchuns and their military expenditure.

Possibly they would reply with references to "Starvation" periods.

They might even point to the model Shanghai and ask why, with a powerful police force, 59,000 feet of Fire Hose, many Fire Engines, and a plentiful supply of water to squirt in people's faces, the Shanghai Municipal Council has yet apparently given carte blanche to a gallant and distinguished professional soldier to put their Volunteer Corps on an instant war footing"

However that may be, it is pertinent to enquire:—

"Upon whom is it proposed to wage war?"

Amongst the newly acquired paraphernalia of sudden death one notices 4.5 Howitzer cannons, several armored cars, and many Lewis guns.

"Items on order but not yet received."

14 Vickers Machine guns.
Rifle grenades.
Verey Lights.
Anti-riot Bombs.
Explosives.

and, if, by mischance, all these should fail to work properly,

75 brand new Swords.

for the gentlemen of the Light Horse.

It is possible, of course, that these are merely the "Hors d'oeuvres" of the banquet that the C-in C is preparing for his "starved" army.

Perhaps Tanks, Aeroplanes, and Big Berthas are contemplated for the heavier courses of the feast.

Not being up to date in military requirements, I trust I have not erred by indicating articles which are already obsolete.

But why stop at this?

The London Times announces that next August the British Government are going to abolish the commands of fifteen Admirals.

Great Britain and the U. S. A. are, and Japan is alleged to be, actively engaged in laying up and scrapping war vessels of all descriptions. What a chance is here unfolded!

Let's have a Navy?

Let's do the thing properly and make quite sure that in the air, on land, and on and under the water, no ricksha coolie, sampan man, cotton mill operative, rice dealer, or Street-Union enthusiast dare dispute our proud supremacy?

Before others have snapped them up, let the Council invite several distinguished and gallant naval 'experts' to come out to Shanghai and spend our money quickly for us?

Haste is necessary, for soon, we may have no more to spend.

A few battle-ships based on the Saddles, which should be converted into the chief Municipal Naval Base: Destroyers, Monitors, and Hush-Hush ships for the Huang-po, a Submarine Flotilla for the Soochow Creek and the waters of Henli with their necessary quota of "Blimps" of course, and a full-rigged Training Ship for the Naval Scouts permanently moored in the puddle at the Hongkew Park, should give employment for many, cost quite a Dollar or two, and give our Municipal Government a prestige amongst the Sampan men and the Launch Laodahs that it cannot possibly possess at present.

A Naval Signalling station and Victualling Yard could be established on the Public Gardens Extension, likewise a battery for its protection. (We already have the Howitzers for this battery, so therefore, we must have a battery for the Howitzers? Any one can follow that!)

Orders for a new fleet for 1925 should be immediately placed with all the Shanghai ship-building concerns, to replace our "obsolescents."

(How their shares will jump! I have already bought forward for 1926, hence this happy thought.)

Many firms will get contracts for supplying the Fleet, business will boom once more, and we shall all get rich more quickly than the Produce Exchangers did.

"Who will pay for it?"—do I hear someone ask?

Don't be so simple, my dear Sir.

Why, the Ricksha coolies, the Wheelbarrow and Handcart men, of course!

They have heaps and heaps of money.

One of them is reported to have got $15 the other day for being kicked in the chest.

They all have chests, and some people say there is nothing they like better than being kicked in their chests at $15 a time.

Those who get knocked down by a motor car and do not instantly spring up and beg the driver's pardon, get kicked elsewhere, but these are not eligible for any Dollars, I understand. At least, they should apply to their Solicitors for advice at these junctures.

To demonstrate how wealthy these coolies are, I beg to inform the public that the Council are increasing their License Feçs this year from $4 to $6 a Quarter. That is $8 a year extra which 30,000 Ricksha coolies have got to find amongst them this coming year.

It is only a little over half a kick in the chest per man per year.

There is lots and lots of money amongst the men of the streets.

Why, some of them actually gamble! They wallow in wealth.

If any of them go on strike, or make a fuss, whatever does it matter?

A telephone message to the Commandant will bring out his army, armored cars, Vickers machine guns, anti-riot bombs, explosives, 75 swords, and everything complete in under sixty minutes, and by a little effort the whole lot could be "Amritsar'd" in no time.

But, somebody asks, "who would pay the $24 a year that the coolies are to be made to pay, if they were all—if, when "Order has been restored—Official."?

Oh, that wouldn't matter. The Council would issue a War Loan to pay for all that, and the Wakes, and for suitable decorations for the new veterans of the Army.

Money doesn't matter, in the least.

Only "Efficiency"—do let us be "Efficient!"

Quite a number of people must have heard of the Shantung Road, St. Lukes, St. Elizabeth's, and the Paulun Hospitals.

For the benefit of those who have not, I may say they are places where sick and injured Chinese are received, attended to, and nursed back to health and strength so far as possible.

The total sums granted to these four merciful Institutions by the Council were as follows:

1920	$17,800

and to be granted for:

1922	$17,800

The Volunteers took for:

1920	$ 72,700
1921	293,000

and propose to take, at least, for:

1922	$280,000

I have one observation, a serious one, to address to the Municipal Council on the above figures.

For the years 1921 and 1922 you have allowed and propose to allow your distinguished Military Adviser to spend $573,000, which is an excess of $400,000 on what the amplest expenditure need be, judged by the previous eight years average.

This excess spending of four Lakhs of Dollars has been, and is to be spent on weapons and methods of frightfulness for the wholesale killing and maiming of human beings.

For the weapons and methods of mercy, of healing, of humane benevolence and charity you grant less than $36,000 for the same period.

As you have a very powerful Police force and an efficient professional Fire Brigade with 59,000 feet of Hose-pipe and pumping apparatus, I suggest, with respect, that for this present year, 1922, you consider granting the sum of $200,000, as an extraordinary grant, to those four Hospitals?

Insist upon not a Dollar more than $80,000 for the Volunteer Corps, instead of the Estimated $280,000 (which may be hugely exceeded as in 1921), thereby devoting resources which will otherwise be wasted on death—dealing trash, to merciful and health-healing cash?

It is worth doing, Gentlemen, because it is a good thing and will be a credit to your administration.

What is being done at present is not merely an unwise thing, it is also a bad and dangerous thing from a Liberal public point of view.

If you continue to sanction these very costly methods of militarism, which, justified as they can be from the purely military standpoint, are, I hold, impossible of justification from any other standpoint, you are embarking upon a course that will land the foreign community of Shanghai into an abyss of danger and disaster.

The governance of this town, if it is to continue, must be based upon reason and consideration for all classes of the inhabitants—the poor and the miserable as well as other sections of the people—the burdens which an extravagant administration has already placed upon the backs of the poorest classes must not be increased, but, at all costs must be made lighter—and this, quickly.

Of the efficiency and esprit de corps of the members of the Volunteers, no one has any doubt, I think nor is there any doubt of the great military ability and devotion to military matters of their distinguished Commander.

Shanghai, however, is not an independent State, and Shanghai is courting a supreme menace to its present status by turning itself into an armed camp.

I hope that I shall not be altogether alone in the opinion that I respectfully but firmly urge upon the Council, I am, etc.

W. BRUCE LOCKHART.

The School Of Auction Bridge

BY R. F. FOSTER

(Author of "Foster on Auction," "Auction Made Easy," "Foster's Complete Hoyle," Etc.)

There are two cases in which bridge players commonly take things for granted. In one of these they are correct in so doing; in the other they are usually a bit hasty, but still correct, in many instances.

To take the first case, in which it is not only right but imperative that a certain thing is taken for granted, we find many examples. One trick more is necessary to win the game. The king and small cards are in the dummy, small only in the declarer's hand. The lead must be arranged to come from the weaker hand to the king. That is, if the ace is not on the right of the king game is impossible; there the player must take it for granted that the ace is there.

There are many situations in which game cannot be won unless the trumps are split, or a certain suit will go round a certain number of times without being trumped by the adversaries. In all such cases it must be taken for granted that the situation is favorable, because if it is not the game is hopeless. Every player must recall countless instances in which a finesse against a certain card was the only chance.

The second case, when taking things for granted is sometimes correct, sometimes too hasty or optimistic, or entirely unnecessary, usually arises in hands in which there is a long suit to be played for, and that suit is not quite solid. The typical case is seven cards between two hands, divided five and two, and the chance that the adversaries have three each.

This distribution may be useful in two ways. If the declarer holds the three top honors the suit will run itself out without losing a trick; or, if he can afford to ruff it once, the one honor out against him must drop if the suit lies three and three in the adversaries' hands. Some persons imagine that the odds are largely in favor of the suit being split three and three, whereas they are only 310 to 243 in favor of it. That is, about five times out of eleven the suit is not split.

This brings us to a point that is continually overlooked, which is the importance of not taking it for granted that the suit is split when one can so arrange the play that it does not matter whether it is split or not. Take the case illustrated here:

S.—J 7 2
H.—Q J 9 7 5
C.—A K
D.—K 6 4

H.—A 4 / C.—J 9 8 7 / D.—Q 9 8 7 2 / S.—6 4

Y: S.—K 10 6 2 / H.—4 2 / C.—A J 5 / D.—9 8 5 3

A: S.—9 8 5 3 / H.—8 3 / C.—Q 10 6 5 3 / D.—10 3

Z: S.—A K J 10

Z dealt, and with four honors in one hand called a spade, which held the contract. A led a small diamond. B played correctly in finessing the jack, but made the mistake of returning the ace. This let Y in with the king. At several tables Z made the mistake of taking it for granted that the clubs would drop, so he led the ace and king to be out of his own way and then tried to drop the trumps, but found it took four leads, and the clubs did not drop. On the last trumps A discarded a small heart and a diamond, as saving the game is a certainty now. Z makes two odd only.

The correct play, after B's error in returning the diamond, was to lead only one rounding of trumps, a small one from dummy and then to ruff the third round of clubs at once. It does not matter whether the clubs are split or not, but it is impossible for either player to hold three more, as both followed suit twice. This wins the game, losing only one heart trick at the end.

In leading clubs before the trumps the only chance that Z takes is that one adversary might have five or six and the other would get in a ruff. As this will occur only seven times in 100 it is not a serious risk.

It is interesting to note that B could have saved this game against the best play on Z's part by finessing the jack of diamonds on the first trick, which is a legitimate play in view of the fact that A should have at least the queen, and the king may be caught later. The correct return for B was the small heart, on the chance that A could come through that king with the ten of diamonds.

A's best effort is the nine, and with the ten in his own hand Z refuses to put up dummy's king, so that B has to play the ace; but now he gets a ruff on B leading the king and another heart, reducing Z to three trumps.

It is not necessary for Z to play for the split in clubs, as he can get discards on the top cards in the red suits. What he plays for now is that the trumps are split and that he can win the third round with dummy's queen. In this he is disappointed, and has to be satisfied with two by cards.

NINGPO'S Y.M.C.A. CAMPAIGN 'GOES OVER,' WITH BANG

(China Press Correspondence)

Ningpo, April 3.—Last Saturday evening was the closing event of the Ningpo Y. M. C. A. drive for funds for buying the site of their new building. The goal set was $20,000 for this fund and an additional $8,000.00 for the year's budget, making a total of $28,000.00 to be raised. Fifty six teams have been working for the last three weeks to raise this. At the meeting on Saturday evening it was found that this sum had been exceeded by almost $1,000.00. Several of the civil and military officials of the city helped most generously in the way of personal contributions.

"The site which has been secured is one of the best locations possible, being equally accessible to the city and the North Bank, situated near the corner near the Bridge-of-Boats on the North Bank of the river. The building which is already being planned will be a great addition to that part of the city.

Plans are now under way for the campaign to raise funds for the building, these funds to be gotten from Ningpo men in other sections of China such as Shanghai, Hangchow, Hankow, Tientsin and Peking, and other places. The goal set is $100,000.00 and it is needless to say that the spirit of loyalty which characterises Ningpo people everywhere will make this campaign a success. Mr. Y. C. Hu, the secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. is planning to visit these cities in the near future and push the campaign in each place.

The Ningpo Missionary Association held its bi-monthly meeting last evening at the pleasant home of Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Bates of the English Methodist Mission. The speaker of the evening was Mr. Wheeler of the National Committee of the Y. M. C. A. who had been with the Chinese Labor Corps in France. His description of the fine work the Y. M. C. A. had done among that group of men was most helpful and inspiring. His address was followed by a short business meeting in which the officers for the year 1922 were elected, Bishop Molony, Chairman: Rev. Sheppard, vice-chairman: Mr. Benjamin, secretary-treasurer. A committee was also appointed to make plans for the Daily Vacation Bible Schools which have been a regular realy feature of the Mission work since 1919.

Gives Send-Off To Russian Bank Head

(China Press Correspondence)

Chefoo, March 24 (Delayed).—The firing of crackers and the crowding of the Kailan Jetty this afternoon by foreigners and Chinese marked the departure from Chefoo of the Kraeutler family.

Mr. Albert Kraeutler has been the manager of the Russo-Asiatic Bank in Chefoo for the last 9 years and the hearty send-off that was given him this afternoon shows the esteem and popularity which he enjoyed among the foreign and Chinese business communities of this port. Mr. Kraeutler has always taken a keen interest for the welfare of the port and the monumental work of our breakwater owes no small share of its existence to the Russo-Asiatic Bank of which Mr. Kraeutler has been the able manager.

Mr. Kraeutler has been the recipent of souvenir presents from many in Chefoo and perhaps the most interesting of all was that presented to him by the Chinese business men of the port in the form of some silver lotus flowers with a piece of Chinese bamboo, interpreted by them as indicating the recipient's "purity of thought and character."

Mr. and Mrs. Kraeutler with their two daughters left by the s.s. Fengtien on their way to France on a well deserved holiday.

RUSS PRISONERS

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, April 8.—The first batch of Russian prisoners from Northern Manchuria arrived in Peking last evening and were sent to the "Model Gaol" by the Legal Authorities.

TO HOLD FAIR

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, April 10.—The Paris Fair will be held from May 10 to May 25 on the Espandade des Invalides and the Champ de Mars and will occupy three hectares more than in previous years. Already 4,200 French manufacturers have reserved their stands.

FINISHES TOUR

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, April 10.—M. Fabre, Manager of the Comedie Francaise, has returned to Paris after a tour of the Scandanavian countries with several articles. M. Fabre declared himself delighted with the reception accorded to his party in Christiania and Stockholm.
